 Yes No

Conviction will not necessarily bar you from employment. If yes, please explain:

It is understood and agreed that the foregoing is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge, and that my falsification of this application will be grounds for elimination from further consideration or, if employed by ruff life, grounds for dismissal. I authorize ruff life to solicit information regarding my character, general reputation, credit, previous employment, and similar background information, and to contact any and all references I have given on my application. I release all parties and persons connected with any such request for information from all claims, liabilities, and damages that may arise out of the furnishing of such information. If employed, I release ruff life from any liability for future references it may provide regarding my work history at the firm.

I understand that my employment with ruff life is "at-will", which means that either ruff life or I can terminate the employment relationship at any time, with or without prior notice, and for any reason not prohibited by statute. All employment is continued on that basis. I understand that no supervisor, manager or owner of ruff life has any authority to alter the foregoing.
